MEDITATIONS

The Rev. Ledeboer was born in Rotterdam, Holland, September 30, 1808, and died in the year 1863. He was glad to leave this wilderness of the world and enter into the rest of Immanuel's Land.

At times he would tell what great things the Lord had done to his soul, and how he obtained the Pearl of great price.

In the days of his youth, he already had a desire to become a minister and preach the Gospel. In the year 1838, the Lord granted his desire. He was a true servant of God.

Rev. Ledeboer was also a poet, and here follows one of his poems for children:

The Teacher

Little children do you know
The worldly things are only show?
Deceitful for the eyes;
Your little heart won't nourished be,
But those, who something better see;
Children! He will not depise.
Do you love the world still,
That your little hearts cannot fill?
May you renounce it and reject,
Early leave the paths of sin,
Looking prayerfully up to Him;
Jesus can your soul protect!

Redeeming Love

Now begin the heavenly theme; Sing aloud in Jesus' name; Ye who his salvation prove, Triumph in redeeming love.

Ye who see the Father's grace Beaming in the Saviour's face

As to Canaan on you move, Praise and bless redeeming love.

Mourning souls, dry up your tears; Banish all your guilty fears; See your guilt and curse remove, Cancelled by redeeming love.

[Welcome all by sin oppressed, Welcome to his sacred rest; Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.]

When his Spirit leads us home, When we to his glory come, We shall all the fulness prove Of our Lord's redeeming love.

[He subdued the infernal powers, Those tremendous foes of ours; From their cursèd empire drove, Mighty in redeeming love.]

Hither, then, your music bring; Strike aloud each cheerful string; Join, ye saints, the hosts above; Join to praise redeeming love. ~J Langford
