

Bible History Puzzle 58

After all their wandering, the Israelites had come very close to the land of Canaan. There lived King Arad. He came with soldiers to fight the Israelites and took some of them _____. When the Israelites prayed to the Lord for help, He did help them. The king and all his soldiers were killed and their cities _____.

Then the Israelites thought they would be able to go into the promised land right away, but the Lord wanted them to make another journey through the _____.

They became very rebellious again and walked angrily to Moses and said, "Why did you not let us stay in Egypt? Do we all have to die in this wilderness? There is no water here and no bread. Well, yes, that manna. But we are tired of the _____." How rebellious and sinful! All those years the Lord had given them bread out of heaven... every _____! And they were all healthy. Were they allowed to speak so poorly of this heavenly bread? They even wanted to kill Moses!

But suddenly, there were snakes crawling over the sand. They were poisonous _____ and men, women and children started falling down. Whoever was bitten would die. They right away understood _____ these snakes were there and Who had sent them!

Then they did not have anything else to say against Moses but instead began to call to him, "We have sinned! Oh, Moses! We have _____ against the Lord. Please help us! Pray for us to the Lord! " And Moses did. He prayed for them to the Lord if He would help with these biting snakes. And the Lord was good and kind again. He listened to Moses's _____. No, the snakes did not go away right away. They still bit the people. People fell down in much pain!

But the Lord said to Moses that he should make a snake out of _____. He would put the snake up on a large pole so that everybody could see it. Whoever would be bitten by a snake should look at this brazen snake, and whoever looked would not _____, but be healed. Even if they were almost dead already!

So Moses followed the Lord's command. He made a snake as quickly as he could because many _____ were still being bitten. And did the people look at this brass serpent? Some thought, it won't help anyway... And others did not _____ to look... They were not believing what the Lord had promised and so they died. That was their own fault!

But there were also those who _____ what the Lord said. When they were bitten, they looked at the brazen serpent up on this high _____ and they were healed and they did not die. No, they did not deserve that! They had disobeyed and rebelled against the _____ so many times. But the Lord was so good that He still wanted to help them.

We know Who this snake was a picture of, don't we?. The snake was a picture of _____. Who would one day be hung high on a cross that whosoever might believe on Him would have _____ life in the same way the Israelites had to believe that looking at this snake made of brass would _____ them.
